Christmas around the world

Our reporters read about how people in other countries celebrate Christmas. This is what they tell us!

Greece

In Greece Christmas is one of the biggest religious holidays. On Christmas Eve many children go to houses and sing Christmas Carols! At midnight people build campfires because they want to get rid of kobolts! They also make a pie for the new year. This comes with a 'gold coin', which brings good luck to the one who finds it in his or her slice of the pie.

Germany

Christmas is very important for Germany. On 6th December they celebrate Saint Nicholas, who is not Santa Claus but he brings presents to the good children, too. He also brings a bundle of birch twigs to swat naughty children.

France

In France Christmas Eve is an ordinary working day, but in the evening all the family sits around the table and has dinner. Pere Noel, the Santa Claus of France, gives presents the night between 24th and 25th December.

England

The English Christmas table has turkey, meat pie and Christmas pudding for good luck.

Belgium

Children leave Christmas stockings on the fireplace. They also leave hay and sugar for Sinterklaas' horse. Sinterklaas is not Santa Claus.

USA

In Midland USA there is a Santa Claus school. The students, who want to work as a Santa Claus, learn the story of Santa Claus, how to get dressed, how to make up, how to talk to the children and their parents and all the new toys. They also do yoga. The school gives all the money it makes from student fees to charity. A real school for Saints...
